

<https://crsconst.com/job/pre-fabricated-building-erectors/>

Pre-Fabricated Building Erectors

Description

Columbia River Steel and Const Inc, located in Eastern Washington State, offers a positive work environment, competitive wages, and health insurance* including medical and dental. The Company also offers paid holidays*, PTO*, and a 401(k)-retirement plan*.

*Available after probation period.

Responsibilities

Pre-employment background and drug screening required.

- Working at heights above ground level
- Rigging and connecting steel members
- Installing wall and roof panels with miscellaneous trim work
- Installing insulation
- Training in Operating equipment such as; fork lifts, scissor lifts, and boom lifts.
- Record of previous safety training preferred.
- Fork lift, aerial boom lifts and scissor lift training.

Qualifications

Minimum Requirements:

- Clean driving record
- Reliable mode of transportation
- Pass a background check and drug screen
- Available to travel, with the possibility of staying out of town (Mon. – Fri.)
- Able to use and accurately read a tape measure.
- Must follow all safety rules and regulations pertaining to work being performed

Person Specifications:

- Must be organized; and able to work safely in a clean work environment
- Communicate effectively, both written and orally
- Must be a self-starter and well-motivated
- Comfortable working at various heights exceeding 20 feet

Physical Requirements:

- Must be able to lift 75 pounds

Job Benefits

- Competitive wages and health insurance* including medical and dental.
- Paid holidays*
- PTO*
- 401(k)-retirement plan*

Employment Type

Full Time

Industry

Construction

Job Location

813 Wallace Way, 98930, Grandview

Working Hours

Hours vary, Monday – Friday, with the possibility of Saturdays when needed.

Typically work (4) ten-hour days during daylight savings time and (5) eight-hour days during standard time

Date posted

October 31, 2018

* Benefits earned after minimum requirement of terms of service are reached.